BRYAN MICHAEL COX AND SESAC HONOR TOP MUSIC PRODUCER SWIZZ BEATZ AT 6TH ANNUAL PRE-GRAMMY BRUNCH

SESAC and Bryan-Michael Cox pay tribute to Swizz Beatz for his outstanding achievement within the music industry

New York, NY, January 21, 2010 - Bryan-Michael Cox and SESAC will host their 6th Annual Pre-Grammy Brunch during the 2010 Grammy Weekend in Beverly Hills, California. The annual brunch, also sponsored by Devotion Vodka and TheCashFlow.com, will honor Swizz Beatz for his achievements and milestones within the music industry over the course of his career.

The exclusive brunch was started by Cox to pay homage to industry executives, producers and songwriters whose infinite contributions in music often go unnoticed. Cox established the brunch as a networking vehicle for his colleagues and peers. "Every year I look forward to celebrating the achievements of my comrades in music," says Cox. "This year I am especially thrilled to recognize the accomplishments of my friend and fellow music producer Swizz Beatz for his continued success and dedication to music."

Kasseem "Swizz Beatz" Dean, a member of SESAC, began his remarkable production career at age 16 garnering hits for rappers DMX, Eve and Jay-Z. He then went on to launch Full Surface Records while establishing himself as a blockbuster producer for an array of artists including Beyonce, Whitney Houston, Lil Wayne, TI, Ludacris and Chris Brown. The brunch's past honorees include Jermaine Dupri, DJ Toomp, Chris Hicks and Danja Hands.

Notably, this year's brunch will also commemorate Bryan Michael Cox's latest career milestones including his recent induction into the Georgia Music Hall of Fame, being named one of Billboard Magazine's top ten producers of the decade and 2010 Grammy nomination for work on Trey Songz Ready Album.
